Exalted Ruler's Message

Members all . . . The Masquerade Party in October was a lot of fun! Folks shared a lot of ideas for future themes like "80s" (I think I still have clothes from that era in my closet), Plaid night (many items of clothing are plaid...more than you ever dreamed!), Band tee-shirt night, Favorite Sports Team, and Pajama Night! Keep an eye on the calendar, these parties are a fun way of reminding Elks that We Love Our Members!

The midyear convention at Breezy Point was super. If you haven't seen our State project, The Youth Camp, you really should find a time to visit. It is peacefully beautiful, with smells of nature and mischievous breezes that push the stress out and away! The food, drink and elk friends may have something to do with that, too. Join us for Youth Camp opening or closing weekends, or attend a midyear convention. Herman reminded up that the camp belongs to ALL of us to enjoy, be proud of, improve and offer to those special young people whose lives will be transformed.

Winter is coming! With the snow, winds, cold and ice come some wonderful things and also some challenges. Many people lose energy and have a significant down turn in mood during the short day months. Please do not feel alone and isolated in this, reach out to an Elk or wander in to the Lodge and members will remind you how valuable you are.

Those who thrive in the winter, remember to check in on people who disappear, or seem overwhelmed. Sometimes it just takes another person just sitting in the same room to feel better and become more focused or energized.

Anyone needs help shoveling snow or dealing with ice? Please let the Lodge know and we will fix you right up. We are all here for each other, for encouragement, support, ideas, empathy, loyalty, humor...and whatever is needed.

Christmas Food Basket Drive

Give Generously . . . Start a new Family Tradition . . .

Santa uses reindeer, but here in Red Wing... We rely on Elks!

While Christmas presents can come in all shapes and sizes, some of the most important ones come in Elks' Christmas Baskets.

The "Biggest Little Envelope" (enclosed) guarantees our pledge of your generosity to deliver the makings of a complete and wholesome Christmas dinner to a family in need.

As always, if you know of somebody or a family who is down on their luck, put their name, address, and phone along with the number in their family inside of your envelope. You will remain anonymous.

There is simply no better way to share in the goodness of Christmas than to gather at the lodge for breakfast on Saturday, Dec. 18 at 8:00am and then assemble and distribute baskets afterwards. It is organized chaos that turns into a little joy to the world. Sign-up sheets are at the lodge.

Please help with this important project. Maybe reindeer can fly, but Elks deliver.

It's GREAT to be an Elk - - Merry Christmas!!!!
Paul Drotos & Dennis Herling, Co-Chairs

Saturday
Dec 18th
at 8 AM

Our day starts with breakfast, then we pack & deliver the baskets.

It's chaotic but VERY rewarding when you drop off a basket and see the smiles on the faces of mom or dad.

Make this a new family tradition!
